

I am unhappy that the FCC is considering limiting the material that satellite radio can offer. I travel extensively and the weather and traffic information is not only useful, it is also a safety device to keep travelers informed of dangers ahead. Please do not limit their content just because some special interest group is lobbying Congress to place restrictions on satellite radio. Let's think of the future and not limit technology. We are the leader...not followers. Ron Hunt, Col (Ret), USAF